

BAND NEWS 1-24

You have two more chances to see the outstanding Fine Arts Production of "Bye Bye Birdie". The musical has been getting rave reviews and we are so proud of our orchestra students. Thank you to Mr. Barnard and these talented students for their hours of dedication to make this production so professional. Final performances will be on Monday the 25th and Tuesday the 26th at 7:30 pm. Tickets are on sale during the lunches and at the door. Please refer to www.stagehawks.org or email the theatre department at bhstheatreboosters@gmail.com for more information.

Make plans for one or both parents to attend the district informational meeting regarding the 2011 Tournament of Roses Parade this Thursday, January 28th at 7:00 PM in the BHS auditorium. The meeting place has changed from the original location at the FAAC to the BHS auditorium due to the anticipated large crowd.

I hope you are looking forward to the First Annual Dinner Dance on Friday night, February 5th. The Jazz Ensemble will be performing and a DJ will provide additional entertainment. A Live Auction, Silent auction, and Raffle ticket sell are also planned for the evening. Please let me know if you are interested in serving on a committee to help plan this fun evening. Find your dancing shoes and get that outfit ready!

Congratulations to Rachel Mathson, 2nd chair flute, Trevor Meagher, 1st chair trombone, and Mac Whaley, 1st chair bass trombone on an outstanding performance with the Region V Orchestra this past Saturday. The students had a great time and represented our band program with class.

Good Luck to the Winterguard at their first competition this Saturday, January 30th in the Coliseum. Please come out and support the team.

Sectionals and extra rehearsals are beginning this semester in order to prepare for the upcoming contests. Please refer to your syllabus for the 4th 6 weeks for more specific information.
